

Essential knowledge that pupils need to be educated citizens:

- Bugle School Behaviour Curriculum built into each and every lesson - taught attributes but caught and subsequently celebrated.
- Complete PSHE Scheme of Work is a progressive programme that builds on children's skills and prior knowledge. Teachers develop sustainable skills.
- Time and support to discuss views and opinions in PSHE lessons. Children to understand the importance of continued new learning and developments in the world around them.

Introducing them to the best that has been thought and said:

- Motivational quotes shared in lessons by influential persons.
- School's links with further education and higher education settings to support with aspirational thinking.
- Visitors to school with a focus on relevant areas to PSHE, such as health and fitness and local community.
- Little People, Big Dreams books available in KS2 library.

Cultural Capital at Bugle School PSHE/RSE

Community

- Visit to a local secondary schools to support with aspiring futures.
- Choir visits to local care home.
- Fundraiser for local community events.
- Local priest, brass band, & Derby & Joan Club visits.

Helping to engender an appreciation of human creativity and achievement

- At the start of each lesson, sharing examples of recent achievements both in school and in the news.
- Picture News used across the EY curriculum which involves PSHE links.
- School newsletter and social media posts that celebrate PSHE achievements.
- Linking PSHE to other areas of excellence, e.g. developing vaccines during a pandemic

Careers

- Olympic swimmer visit
- Author visits
- Young Entrepreneurs Event
- Visits from police, fire, Midwife & RSPCA